

Teyvat SEA Exploration – Cosplayers Guidelines

Admission Guidelines for Cosplayers

1. Guests wearing full-face paint, masks, helmets, or other types of headgear that hide the entire face will not be admitted into the park.
2. Guests may not be admitted to the park if costume worn can disrupt public order (including clothing that exposes an excessive amount of skin, revealing clothing deemed unfit for the Park, underwear that is visible, clothing that appears to be underwear, or clothing that gives the illusion of nudity), incite trouble, is morally offensive or violates public decency laws.
3. Guests with attire or cosmetics that make it difficult to identify an individual's actual face or physique, thereby interfering with Park security in the event of an emergency, is not allowed.
4. Guests may not be admitted if any costume elements or props carried will disrupt park operations (e.g., Body paint that smears on habitats and cosmetic glitter that falls out).
5. Guests may not be admitted to the park if props carried or costume elements such as wings are taller than 1.8m in height and longer than 0.8m in width (based on a case-by-case basis).
6. Any items that resemble weapons (including toys and handmade items) will not be allowed into the park (except merchandise that is sold at S.E.A. Aquarium).
7. Costumes, accessories, and any items that may pose a danger to other guests and team members are not allowed.
8. For the safety of other guests, you may be asked to remove loose accessories or part(s) of your costume before admission.

In-Park Guidelines for Cosplayers

1. Please refrain from impersonating park team members or any civil personnel through words, actions, or costumes.
2. Please refrain from dangerous actions and/or behaviour (e.g., weapon play and/or staged fights) that may hinder park operations or may frighten other guests.
3. Please refrain from bringing bulky items including makeup trolleys, photography and videography equipment that might potentially injure other guests and/or cause hinderance to park operations by obstructing the walkway.
4. Please refrain from photography or filming that may be bothersome to other guests.
5. Please refrain from any activity that requires you to occupy a space for a long period of time thereby causing a hindrance to park operations (e.g., Changing costumes inside bathrooms or occupying mirror space for applying make-up).
6. For safety reasons, you may be asked to remove parts of your costume, accessories, or cosmetics (e.g., makeup, face paint, or prosthetic makeup) after you have entered the Park.

*All props and costumes will be checked before admission into the Park.

*S.E.A. Aquarium is not liable to store and/or watch any part of guests' costumes or props for any amount of time.

*S.E.A. Aquarium will not be held responsible for any loss or damage caused directly or indirectly to guests' costumes and accessories.
